

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning October 29. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - - - - - 10 cents per week. By Mail - - - - - $2.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloth. At the roller rink this evening everything is free to the visitors.

Dave Fostevin, after remaining in jail Monday night, was let out yesterday morning.

The stock sale of L. C. Baldwin & Son takes place at the fair grounds this afternoon.

J. N. Casady has been making some improvement to his property on Oakland avenue.

Capt. Fox, with all his avoidances, will run like a steer as a candidate for constable.

It is expected that Omaha will send 1,000 men over here to the republican rally Friday night.

The organization of the Knights and Ladies of Honor has been postponed until after election.

The Methodist church choir is to give a concert at the Broadway church, Friday evening of next week.

Marriage license was yesterday issued to James Thompson and M. C. Christenson, both of Hazel Dell.

It is anticipated from the present indications that over 9,000 men will be in the parade next Friday night.

Jack White, who is one of the strongest democratic candidates for constable, says he is running well in Omaha.

Officer O'Brien arrested a plain drunk named McLaughlin yesterday, who was the sole occupant of the city jail.

Dan Sullivan, a silk peddler, hailing Cheyenne, has been sent to the county farm here being sick and penniless.

The Boys in Blue have secured Masehall for election night, and will receive returns there by a special wire run to the hall.

A goodly delegation of republicans left last evening to attend the rally at Red Oak. They took the Bavarian and martial bands.

The ladies who intend taking part in the great republican rally Friday evening are requested to meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in Masonic hall.

The city jail fall cleaning took place yesterday. Soap and water were used in large quantities. The jail at that time being unoccupied by prisoners.

The paving of North Main street with cedar blocks will be completed this morning. This completes the contract of Messrs. J. B. Smith & Co.

The republicans are enthusiastic about the coming rally Friday evening. Council Bluffs will have a crowd that night from all the surrounding county.

Deputy marshal Ed Bates had two fingers badly mashed yesterday during the jail cleaning. He had them squeezed by the iron door leading to the cells.

On October 22nd at Weston, Iowa, the Rev. Wilbur Fiak united in marriage D. A. Arrowsmith, of Coon Rapids, and Miss Mattie McCarty, of Milan, Ills.

The Centerville Coal company has placed in front of Cook & Cooper's office, on Broadway, a fine sample from its mines. It is a nice little lump, weighing 2,000.

Mr. Jerman, the poll tax collector, is still after the delinquents with a sharp stick, and those who have not paid up should hasten to reach some amicable settlement.

The republican rally on Friday night next promises to be too large for one procession and they will divide it into three all of which will march the entire length of Main street.

The city council thinks it had better let the old court house stand until after election. Both parties favor the east end, but especially the democratic members of the council.

The boys' play in which Judge James and the council are indulging, using his resignation as a foot-ball, will probably come to an end by the score card being cleaned off and all crying quits.

Mr. Keagan, the paving contractor, has received a telegram stating that eighteen cars of stone were shipped Monday, and fifteen more yesterday, so the paving is likely to begin this afternoon or to-morrow again.

The building formerly occupied by Tibbitts & Kost, north of the Cres'on house on Main street, is to be torn down, and is to be replaced by a brick building by the owner of the property, Adam Ritter.

N. L. Hall has sold out the Pacific house sample room and billiard hall and gone to Blow, Neb., to go into the hotel business. Wm. Maloney and Capt. Russell, both well known here, are the purchasers.

A row boat was yesterday found on the Iowa side of the river by a boatman with a kit of burglar tools in it. It was further learned that two men were in the boat when it was lured and they got out and walked to the city.

The democrats have nominated N. Schurz and A. L. Hendricks for justices of the peace. Mr. Schurz will doubtless be elected, as he has many republican friends as well as democratic supporters, and is known as an honest and capable man. Mr. Hendricks is an old citizen, who also has many friends and supporters, but he can hardly expect to get elected over such a man as Justice Abbott, or over Mr. Rhoadbeck or Mr. Coggshall.

The two-months-old babe of Mrs. H. C. Moore, of Bloomfield, Iowa, died while visiting Mr. W. I. Eshart, her brother, and his family in this city. The remains were taken to Bloomfield accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Eshart on Monday.

Why does not Ald. McMahon attend to the council meetings? With Judge James hanging on the ragged edge of a resignation, and McMahon absent, the Fourth ward has no representative in the council except Bill Galvin, who sits in the lobby.

The current report that Will Patten is the deputy clerk in case of J. J. Shea's election, is not yet denied, and seems to be a fixed fact. This fact does not strengthen the democratic candidate's chances very much. Patten being one of the triplets, of which Frainey is chief.

J. J. Shea, candidate for county clerk, and his family were nearly suffocated yesterday morning at Neola where they reside. The stove pipe having become displaced during the night the gas from the stove escaped. Mrs. Shea awoke early feeling badly and on attempting to get up fell in a faint to the floor. The house was opened and fresh air allowed circulate after which Mrs. Shea came to.

The alley north of Broadway, between Main and Pearl streets, is in a horrible condition, and has been so much of the time for eight or ten years. With the paving of Main street it will be worse than ever, as the grade is low. Most of the property owners want to have the alley paved, but there are some who object, and the city engineer declares that sewerage must be put down there before paving is done.

Policeman O'Brien yesterday arrested a man, who gave the name of Frank Dunn, on suspicion of being John Mullen, a deserter from the depot department of the army at Jefferson, Mo. Chief of Police Skinner took the man over to the government barracks in Omaha. If this proves a deserter O'Brien will get a reward of $30. This is the second man arrested by O'Brien on the same charge.

It seems to be pretty well settled in the minds of many political prophets that in the congressional contest in this district neither candidate will get 500 majority. Had not the republicans nominated a man whose record has to be defended by such voluminous documents and extended explanations, Pusey would either not have run, or would have been snowed under by big drifts. Many of the republicans cannot endorse Lyman and others vote for him under a protest, and simply because it is a national year.

Detective Fero had a little rattle yesterday with a stranger who had been hanging about the depot and yards of the Milwaukee and St. Paul company for two or three days. Fero warned him away, and the fellow declared he wouldn't go until he got ready. Fero proposed to help him get ready, and as he grabbed him the fellow struck him two or three times. Then Fero pulled his gun and hit the fellow on the head with it. Each has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of the other and yesterday afternoon Attorney Sears got out a warrant for Fero for falsely assuming to be an officer.

The democrats themselves have been trying to sit down on the man Frainey, and have succeeded in doing so in the Fourth ward caucus, but by a scratch he got a nomination for justice of the peace. The republicans will help the democrats in sitting down on him next week. He has the reputation of being a mere ward politician, and when justice of the peace before he made anything but a favorable record, and since his last defeat his chief ambition seems to have been to hang onto Vaughan's coat tails. Vaughan himself, would doubtless be glad to shake him, but Frainey having once got into the star chamber and learned some of its secrets, it is no easy thing to do.

There has been much trouble at different times over the sewerage trade of the Pacific house, as it empties into the creek near Mace Wise's stable, making it very offensive to that gentleman. It seems that the Pacific house had at one time a direct sewer to the creek, but when the city put in another sewer the Pacific house sewer was made to connect with this and the direct sewer abandoned. Now that the new sewerage is being laid the city has abandoned the old sewer, and the Pacific house folks propose to reopen the direct sewer to the creek, intending to use it only a few weeks until the city's new sewerage is completed so that the house can be connected with that. Mace Wise has sued for an injunction to restrain this, and served notice on the city. He is quite hot about it, and talks of blowing the sewer up with dynamite if he cannot get rid of it any other way. The matter is now in the hands of a council committee and the city attorney, who will try to pacify the parties for a short time, when permanent sewerage will be provided.

The republicans have issued 50,000 large circulars in defense of Lyman's record. The printed matter, set solid, measures fifteen feet in length. Yet in all this there is not a line denying the fact that there was a shortage in Lyman's accounts as revenue collector. That is conceded, and the only use the space is put to is to show that he was not actually arrested or tried, but that it was patched up. In defending the major from the charge arising out of the Keyser judgment, his friends, only defense is County Clerk Street got the money, and not Lyman. In order to pull Lyman through they have to put another republican candidate "in the hole." Perhaps, it is because they feel that Mr. Street has so fully the confidence of the people that he can stand the burden better than Lyman. Mr. Street is quietly bearing the blame of the charge, without publicly denying it, probably for the good of the party. He may be able to stand this martyrdom, and still win, but it seems hardly fair for the republicans to try to keep Lyman out by throwing a weight on another and better republican candidate. Mr. Street's friends understand that he donies in toto that he received the money, and they believe him in preference to Lyman, but publicly he keeps still rather than hurt Lyman, who cannot stand much more grief.

To-day is the last registration day. Books which are published at $1.25 are now being sold for 50 cents at Seaman's.
